About the Author

John Singleton Mosby was born in Virginia in 1833. He graduated from the University of Virginia and practiced law before the outbreak of the Civil War. Mosby joined the Confederate Army in 1861 and quickly rose through the ranks, becoming a colonel in 1863. Mosby's Rangers were one of the most successful partisan ranger units of the war, and Mosby himself became one of the most famous and successful cavalry commanders of the Confederacy.

After the war, Mosby returned to Virginia and practiced law. He also served as a United States consul in Hong Kong and as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates. Mosby died in 1916.
