

Everything Will Be Just Perfect

From the moment she laid eyes on him, Abby knew that Ben was the one. He was handsome, charming, and everything she had ever dreamed of in a man. But their whirlwind romance came to a crashing halt when Ben was tragically killed in a car accident just months after they got engaged.

Years later, Abby is still struggling to come to terms with Ben's death. She has withdrawn from the world, and she finds it difficult to connect with anyone new. But when she meets Jake, a single father who is just as kind and compassionate as Ben, she begins to slowly open up her heart again.

But just when Abby thinks she has found happiness again, her past comes back to haunt her. Ben's parents, who have never forgiven her for his death, are determined to keep her away from Jake and his young son. And as Abby digs deeper into the circumstances surrounding Ben's accident, she begins to uncover secrets that could tear her apart all over again.

In this heartwarming and suspenseful novel, Jodi Picoult explores the themes of love, loss, and second chances. Everything Will Be Just Perfect is a story about the power of forgiveness and the resilience of the human spirit.
