Five Seven Five is a collection of haiku poems that explore the beauty and wonder of the natural world. From the delicate petals of a flower to the vast expanse of the night sky, these poems capture the essence of each moment in time.

Haiku is a traditional Japanese form of poetry that consists of three lines of five, seven, and five syllables, respectively. Haiku poems are often about nature, and they often use imagery to create a vivid impression of a particular moment or scene.

The poems in Five Seven Five are written in the traditional haiku form, and they capture the beauty and wonder of the natural world in a way that is both simple and profound.

If you are looking for a book of poetry that will inspire you to appreciate the beauty of the natural world, then Five Seven Five is the perfect book for you.

Here is a sample haiku from the book:

The petals unfurl, A blossom in full bloom, Spring has sprung anew.
