About the Book

In 2018, Greta Thunberg, a then-15-year-old Swedish student, began skipping school every Friday to protest the lack of action on climate change. Her solitary protest quickly gained attention, and soon, students all over the world were joining her in the School Strike for Climate. Thunberg has since become one of the most visible and influential climate activists in the world, speaking at the United Nations and other high-profile events.

In her book, How to Change the World, Thunberg offers a practical guide for young people who want to make a difference in the world. Drawing on her own experiences, she provides advice on how to get started, how to stay motivated, and how to overcome the challenges that you will inevitably face.
