Our protagonist, Darla, is the spirited owner of the renowned Darla Delectables food truck. With her mouthwatering muffins and infectious enthusiasm, she brings joy to the streets of Willow Creek. But her idyllic existence takes a sinister turn when a local mechanic, Hank, is found murdered in Darla's truck.

Determined to clear her name and find the real killer, Darla teams up with her loyal friend and food truck partner, Marty. Together, they navigate a labyrinth of suspects, from shady car enthusiasts to jealous rivals. With their keen observation skills and a knack for unearthing hidden clues, Darla and Marty uncover a web of secrets and hidden motives that extend far beyond the world of food trucks.

As the investigation deepens, Darla discovers that the victim was entangled in a dangerous plot involving stolen car parts and illegal street racing. With each muffin baked and each mechanical mishap resolved, Darla and Marty inch closer to the truth. But the killer remains elusive, leaving a trail of puzzling clues and a growing sense of menace.
