Essential Quotes: Illuminating the Inner Workings of the Novel

"I am an Indian. I am not just an Indian. I am not a stereotype. I am not a mascot. I am not a drunk. I am not a savage. I am not a warrior. I am not a princess. I am not a squaw. I am not invisible. I am not extinct. I am not a noble savage. I am not a vanishing American. I am not a relic of the past. I am not a figment of your imagination. I am not a museum piece. I am not a commodity. I am not your pet. I am not your burden. I am not your responsibility. I am not your problem. I am not your solution. I am not your token. I am not your mascot. I am not your stereotype. I am not your anything. I am an Indian. I am not just an Indian." - Tony Loneman

"I am not a stereotype. I am not a statistic. I am not a victim. I am not a criminal. I am not a drunk. I am not a dropout. I am not a failure. I am not a burden. I am not a loser. I am not a quitter. I am not a disappointment. I am not a nobody. I am not invisible. I am not forgotten. I am not extinct. I am not a relic of the past. I am not a figment of your imagination. I am not a museum piece. I am not a commodity. I am not your pet. I am not your burden. I am not your responsibility. I am not your problem. I am not your solution. I am not your token. I am not your mascot. I am not your stereotype. I am not your anything. I am a human being."

- Jacquie Red Feather
