In the wake of the tragic school shooting in Uvalde, Texas, and the ongoing opioid crisis, it is more important than ever to raise our voices and speak out against the senseless violence and addiction that is plaguing our communities.

Voices from the Shadows is an anthology of powerful and moving poems that explore the devastating impact of gun violence and addiction on our communities. These poems are written by survivors, family members, friends, and loved ones of those who have been affected by these tragedies. They are raw, honest, and heartbreaking, but they are also filled with hope and resilience.

The poems in this anthology offer a unique and intimate glimpse into the lives of those who have been touched by gun violence and addiction. They tell stories of loss, grief, and trauma, but they also speak to the power of healing, hope, and community.

This anthology is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the devastating impact of gun violence and addiction on our communities. It is a powerful and moving tribute to the victims of these tragedies, and it is a call to action for all of us to work together to end the senseless violence and addiction that is plaguing our communities.

Gun Violence (Tetractys Poem)

Gun
to shoot
aim to kill
enemy eyes
targeted within the scope of your mind.

Take this bullet in your hand to kill me just load your gun
wait for me

right here
now.
