Meet Teetoncey, the Spirit of the Outer Banks

At the heart of this trilogy lies the indomitable spirit of Teetoncey, an unforgettable heroine who embodies the resilience, independence, and boundless curiosity of the Cape Hatteras landscape she calls home. As she navigates the challenges of adolescence, Teetoncey's infectious enthusiasm, unwavering determination, and unwavering loyalty leave an enduring mark on those who cross her path.

The Wind in the Willows, A Wave in the Water

In "The Wind in the Willows," the first installment of the trilogy, Teetoncey finds herself torn between the allure of the familiar and the whispers of adventure. With her surfboard as her trusted companion, she sets out on a transformative summer that will forever shape her destiny. As she battles the unforgiving ocean currents and confronts the secrets that have long haunted her family, Teetoncey discovers the true meaning of courage and the unyielding power of love.

The Time Between the Tides

The second book, "The Time Between the Tides," delves deeper into the complexities of Teetoncey's identity. As she embarks on a perilous journey to a distant island, she encounters a cast of unforgettable characters who challenge her beliefs and push her to confront the shadows of her past. Through a series of trials and triumphs, Teetoncey uncovers hidden truths about her lineage and the enduring bonds that connect her to her community.

The Girl Who Drank the Moon

The culmination of the trilogy, "The Girl Who Drank the Moon," is a breathtaking crescendo that weaves together the threads of the previous books. With heightened stakes and a palpable sense of urgency, Teetoncey embarks on a final quest to confront the forces of darkness that threaten to consume Cape Hatteras. Amidst a raging storm and the unveiling of long-buried secrets, Teetoncey's destiny reaches its ultimate realization.
